

November 30, 2017

Garanti Bank Named as the “Bank of the Year in Turkey” by The Banker

Garanti Bank has been named as the “Bank of the Year in Turkey” by The Banker, the finance and economics journal of the Financial Times group. The assesment, based on the objective views of expert bankers and analysts, weighs fiscal performance, risk management, use of new technologies and strategies that differentiate the Bank from its competitors

Commenting on the topic Garanti Bank CEO Fuat Erbil stated that “Garanti Bank has been granted the Bank of the Year in Turkey award on the back of its strong financial performance and innovative business model. Besides the solid balance sheet structure, our efficient use of technology to improve our business processes and customer satisfaction have significance in the assessment. Pioneering the sector in many fields for years, we have been holding the leader consumer bank title among the private banks in Turkey. We are glad that this has been recognised once again and crowned with an award by an independent and worldwide prestigious organization. We will sustain the same pace in supporting the economy while preserving our capital and improving the customer satisfaction”.